

The intended actions of Sinclair Broadcasting are a prime example of the problems with big media consolidation. If you must allow such consolidation, please also do everything possible to promote the continued existence of more independent media outlets, in order to provide balance. Thanks.